

"I really enjoyed the experience and look forward to doing it again. From my point of view, it was one of the most organized events I've participated in at MSU."

- Rebecca Tegtmeier, College of Arts and Letters, Interactive Paper Prototyping instructor

GRANDPARENTS UNIVERSITY

Uniting Spartan Generations

JUNE 27-29

BE A PART OF SOMETHING BIG!

What do you get when you combine MSU faculty and staff, Spartan alumni and their grandchildren? One amazing experience in the form of Grandparents University, MSU's intergenerational program that showcases the university to future Spartans. Guests stay in the residence halls for a three-day, two-night program and take classes taught by MSU faculty and staff, all while building memories to last a lifetime. We invite you to be part of this unique program by volunteering to teach one or more sessions.

"Thank you to the staff and volunteers. You all do an amazing job and it's very much appreciated. The bonding time with the kids is priceless and we all learn something. Keep up the extraordinary work." – 2015 Participant

BENEFITS OF INSTRUCTOR PARTICIPATION:

- List as an outreach/service/research activity on Form D for Recommendation for Reappointment, Promotion or Tenure Action (applies to Tenure System only)
- Showcase your area of interest to a new generation of students
- Select your own topic and class size (range is 12-200 people), and receive a stipend of up to $10 per person for class supplies
- Have an impact without a tremendous time commitment, average class time is an hour and a half
- Participate in an experience so rewarding that 90% of our instructors teach multiple years
